

6th Annual Santa Mile
Sat. Nov. 27, 2010

On a cold, windy TISS track, seventeen members of the Brockville Road Runners challenged themselves, their competitors and the elements on Saturday afternoon.

Thirteen year old Emily Carmichael not only won the kids thirteen and under race but her performance was the fastest women's overall time.

In the "open" competition, Robert Cooper won for the second year in a row. Last year, he raced down King Street in front of the Santa Claus Parade to win the event.

Saturday marked the final running of this race. Plans are already under way for a new distance and a new venue next year.
